HOW DOES IT WORK?

A WageWorks Healthcare FSA is a great way to pay for healthcare products and services, reduce your taxable income, and save money in the process. Plus, using an FSA just got better with the new $500 carryover to the next plan year. You can use your FSA more and worry less about losing any money you don't spend up to $500. You simply decide how much to contribute to your WageWorks Healthcare FSA for the year, and contributions are made each pay period. You can easily access funds in your FSA to pay for eligible healthcare expenses.

Your WageWorks Healthcare FSA delivers real tax savings. Plus, you can access the full amount of your FSA on day one. Funds are moved from your paycheck to your FSA before taxes are deducted, which reduces your overall tax burden.

DO I QUALIFY & HOW MUCH CAN I CONTRIBUTE?

2

The IRS determines the maximum amount you may contribute to a healthcare FSA each year.

2014 Contribution Amounts

For 2014, the IRS has established the maximum amount that can be contributed at $2,500. You can roll over up to $500 of unused FSA funds. Your rollover will not impact your contribution limit, which means your total balance in the next plan year could be up to $3,000.

When estimating how much you want to contribute to your healthcare FSA, consider upcoming medical, dental, vision, and pharmacy expenses that may not be covered by your health plan. Also, remember that healthcare expenses for any of your tax dependents are eligible for reimbursement, even if those individuals are not on your employer's health insurance plan.

WHAT EXPENSES ARE COVERED?

3

You may use your WageWorks Healthcare FSA to pay for eligible healthcare expenses. The IRS defines which expenses are eligible and ineligible.

Eligible expenses include:

- Health plan co-payments
- Dental work and orthodontia
- Eye exams and eyeglasses
- Contact lenses
- Chiropractic treatment
- Vaccinations
- Prescription medications
- Mental health counseling

“Our overall living costs are significant, so I wasn't going to pass up an opportunity to boost my take-home pay. I knew that our co-payments, new eyeglasses, and orthodontia work for my daughter would total at least $2,500 for the year. So I contributed $2,500 to my WageWorks Healthcare FSA and used the tax-free dollars to cover our medical expenses. As a result, I saved $750!”

HOW DO I PAY FOR EXPENSES?

It's easy to access and use funds in your WageWorks Healthcare FSA. There are four easy payment and reimbursement options:

1. WageWorks Healthcare Card. Simply present this card when payment is required, whether at a doctor's office or pharmacy. It works like a debit card. Money is deducted directly from your FSA.
2. WageWorks EZ Receipts® mobile application. Take a photo of receipts and instantly submit them for payment, and check your FSA balance – right from your smartphone.
3. Direct online payments. Access your FSA online account and fill out a simple form to pay your provider.
4. Reimburse yourself. Arrange for FSA funds to be transferred to your checking account or a check to be mailed to reimburse you for expenses you've already paid.

It's important to keep receipts and other supporting documentation related to your FSA expenses and reimbursement requests. The IRS requires appropriate documentation for all FSA reimbursements.

When you use your WageWorks Healthcare Card, most transactions are automatically verified. However, from time to time additional documentation may be needed to verify the date of service, amount billed, and services rendered. Credit card receipts, canceled checks, and balance forward statements do not meet the requirements for acceptable documentation.
